

Budget Matters Conference 2016

Wednesday, November 16

Who's the Audience?

The full-day Budget Matters Conference will attract 300 to 400 policymakers, advocates, community leaders, and other important members of the community to discuss how we can work together to make progress toward creating shared prosperity and thriving communities for all Washingtonians.

What's Our Reach?

The Budget & Policy Center gets more than 8,000 website page-views per month (with more than 3,000 unique visitors), has more than 1,100 e-newsletter readers and more than 900 schmudget blog subscribers. We also have almost 6,000 highly engaged followers on our social media pages.

Premier Sponsor $5,000

- Logo prominently displayed on email invitations and event e-communications
- Logo prominently displayed on event webpage and related online materials
- Logo prominently displayed in the printed event program and on screen at event
- Verbal recognition during event program
- Admission for six guests
- B&PC e-newsletter "thank you" recognition
- Recognition on social media and schmudget blog

Partner Sponsor $2,500

- Small logo recognition on email invitations and event e-communications
- Small logo displayed in the printed event program
- Small logo recognition on event webpage and related online materials
- Admission for four guests
- B&PC e-newsletter "thank you" recognition
- Social media recognition

Associate Sponsor $1,250

- Name recognition on invitation
- Name listed in the printed event program
- Name recognition on event webpage and related online materials
- Admission for two guests
- B&PC e-newsletter "thank you" recognition
- Social media recognition

Community Sponsor $500

- Name listed in the printed event program
- Name recognition on event webpage
- Social media recognition
- Contribution to ticket cost for attendees who can't afford full ticket price. Event webpage, social media, and tickets for scholarship recipients will acknowledge that community sponsors contributed to event scholarships.