

PROGRESS ON HEALTHY PEOPLE

ATA GLANCE

*since 2008

VULNERABLE WASHINGTONIANS: KEY INDICATORS OF PROGRESS		ARE WE MAKING PROGRESS?
Number of psychiatric beds
Share of patients readmitted to a state or community hospital within 30 days of leaving
Rate of out-of-care placements
Share of children re-entering out-of-home care within two years (by placement type):	Reunification
	Guardianship
	Adoption
HEALTH CARE: KEY INDICATORS OF PROGRESS
Number of Washingtonians enrolling in Medicaid or Exchange under the Affordable Care Act
Percent of population with health coverage (by age):	Children (0-17)
	Young Adults (18-24)
	Working Adults (25-64)
	Seniors (65+)
Percent of adults and children with access to a reliable network of comprehensive medical care (also referred to as a "patient-centered medical home"):	Children (0-17)
	Adults (18-64)
Percent of adults not seeing doctor because of cost
Percent of children who had a dental visit within the last year
Percent of adults who had a dental visit within the last year

significant worsening stalled progress

significant progress

TOTALS

2

6

8

In cases where progress has two colors (red/yellow or yellow/green), that indicates partial stalling or partial progress. For tallying purposes, we only counted red or green.

*Statewide progress was measured since 2008. In some cases, that time frame was slightly adjusted based on data available. To see the full reference data, view the Progress Index at www.budgetandpolicy.org